

The local information magazine for parents

In print, online plus free social media

Simply Swim - "I started my small swimming business over a year ago and for me it was important to be in the ABC Magazine. As a Mother out and about with small children I used ABC for places to go and things to do and now as a business owner I want to let all the new mothers looking for activities and swimming lessons for their children that I am here. One of the best places for that is ABC!"

Music for Aardvarks and Other Mammals - "I've been advertising in ABC Magazine since I started Music for Aardvarks and Other Mammals in 2006. I don't think I've missed one issue! There are plenty of ways to spend my print advertising ~~money~~ and Hove read - and keep - their latest copy of ABC to refer to when researching local children's classes. Some new parents even call it their bible! It's a brilliant resource for them as parents and a great way for me to get word out about my music groups."
